

Albright College Study Abroad Scholarship Opportunities:

Beall Scholarship for Study Abroad

- For students with financial need.
- The student must participate in an activity that will both help the local community in the host country and increase the student's engagement with the foreign culture. The activity must be an appropriate service-learning course, volunteer project, or service-related research or internship experience that is arranged in advance with the program or university abroad. Please see the Beall Scholarship Suggested Programs list for preapproved programs.
- Priority is given to students studying in higher need and/or less traditional locations.
- Students must have a minimum 2.75 GPA to apply for the Beall Scholarship.

Betsy Kiddy International Study Fund

- For students planning to study abroad in South America with preference given to students studying in Chile and Brazil.
- This merit scholarship is intended for students with two semesters of language study who will pursue intensive language study in the same language (Spanish can substitute for Portuguese) during their study abroad experience.

Marian Frances Wolbers Study Abroad Scholarship

- For students with financial need.
- This study abroad scholarship is awarded with preference for students studying in Japan or other East Asian countries but can be awarded to students studying in another country.

Other Need-Based Funding

- Other need-based financial aid may be available and, if eligible, students will automatically be considered.

Need based scholarships are primarily determined by your financial need.

Merit based scholarships are primarily determined by the merits of your application.
